Welcome Letter

The show

Dear Visitor,

Welcome to Hobby-X 2025 – we're so excited to have you here!

As the Show Director, it brings me great joy to welcome you to this year's event, themed "Urban Canvas." This theme celebrates the vibrant creativity that lives all around us – in our cities, in our homes, and within ourselves. Hobby-X is where that creativity comes to life, and you are a vital part of the experience.

Whether you're here to explore something new, shop for tools and treasures, try your hand at a workshop, or simply soak in the inspiration, there's something at Hobby-X for everyone. This year, we've curated an unforgettable mix of exhibitors, demos, hands-on activities, and creative zones designed to spark ideas and fuel your passion.

I encourage you to take your time, chat with our exhibitors, discover local talent, and most importantly – enjoy yourself! Hobby-X is more than just a show; it's a celebration of creativity, community, and the incredible things we can make with our hands and our hearts.

Thank you for being here. I hope your visit leaves you inspired, energised, and ready to create something amazing.

Warm regards,

Marlene Bosch
